

Monday 3 May 2021 | h. 14-16

DEFENDING ACADEMIC FREEDOM AT UNIVERSITY: THE ROLE OF "EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING"
THE INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LEGAL CLINIC OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TURIN
AND THE STUDENTS' ADVOCACY SEMINARS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PADUA

Introductory remarks

Valeria Marcenò, Deputy Director, Law Department, University of Turin

Laura Scomparin, Legal Clinics' Coordinator, University of Turin

Chair

Barbara Gagliardi, Representative of SAR Network, University of Turin

Speakers

Andrea Spagnolo, Director, International Human Rights Legal Clinic, Law Department, University of Turin

"Defending Academic Freedom before UN Human Rights Treaty Bodies: A Methodological Perspective"

Giacomo Bruno and Francesca Romanelli, Former Students, International Human Rights Legal Clinic, Law Department, University of Turin

"Case Study: Applying against Bahrein before the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention"

Luciano Cortese and Camilla Karima Messour, Students, International Human Rights Legal Clinic, Law Department, University of Turin

"Case Studies: The UPR concerning Thailand and the Special Procedure against Belarus"

Claudia Padovani and Francesca Helm, coordinators, Scholars at Risk Italy and SAR Students Advocacy Seminar, Department of Politics, Law and International Studies, University of Padova

"Advocating for academic freedom: engaging the academic community"

Tatiana Krivobokova and Achira Veerapadungphol, Students, SAR Students Advocacy Seminar 2020, Department of Politics, Law and International Studies, University of Padova

"Libertà accademica: proteggiamola. Free Ahmadsreza Djajali and Niloufar Bayani - Insights from a SAR Students Advocacy Seminar"

Estefania Perez and Aiym Muzafar, Students, SAR Students Advocacy Seminar 2021, Department of Politics, Law and International Studies, University of Padova

"Connecting advocacy networks, advocating for academic freedom. From case selection to planning for a campaign"

On line at: <https://unito.webex.com/meet/andrea.spagnolo>

For further information: andrea.spagnolo@unito.it

DIPARTIMENTO DI ECCELLENZA
ammesso a finanziamento MIUR (2018-2022)